

Placement Cell Activities:

Various activities are carried out by T & P cell:

- 1) Campus Placements: Campus interviews are organized at the institute for the placement of the students. By organizing this campus placement, students can secure their future career and industries are getting the best talents in terms of fresh pass out students,
- 2) Expert Lectures: Training & Placement cell organizes expert lectures at the department level in coordination with department. Such lectures familiarize the students and the faculty with the best industry practices and their correlation with the textbook material.
- 3) Industrial Training for Students: To acknowledge the students with real world problem training is the most important part of the study. Students are placed at various industries for 4 to 6 weeks and under supervision and guidance of respective industry personnel.
- 4) Industrial Visit : Study Tour: In every semester, industry visits of the students with faculty members are organized to the relevant industries at various locations. It gives exposure to large-scale practical application of theoretical aspects for the students.
- 5) Student Projects: Students prepare the projects reflecting the needs and problems of the industry. Also best projects gets financial support by SSIP.
- 6) Training for the faculty: Faculty is deputed for training at various institutes. This exposure enhances the teaching capability of the faculty and allows them to enrich their classroom delivery.
- 7) Career Orientation Programmes: Various programs are organized to orient students about industry expectations. Additional seminars are undertaken by the students in each semester to improve learning in the areas like personality development, group discussion and presentation skills.